Step into a Winter Wonderland

As you enter the park, you'll be greeted by a breathtaking winter wonderland adorned with festive decorations that evoke the spirit of Christmas past. The cobblestone streets are lined with twinkling lights, and the air fills with the scent of freshly baked treats.

Festive Traditions of the 1840s

Journey back to the 1840s, where you'll witness the traditions of Christmas in a fur trading fort. Step inside the cozy log cabins and listen to captivating stories of how Christmas was celebrated in the past. Watch as costumed interpreters demonstrate traditional crafts, such as candle making and quillwork, and learn about the significance of these customs.

Swinging Sounds of the 1920s

In the 1920s section of the park, the energy is electric as the tunes of the era fill the air. Join in the lively Christmas carols sung by costumed carolers, and tap your feet to the rhythm of live jazz performances. The festive atmosphere transports you to a time of glitz and glamour.

Interactive Activities for All Ages

The Hoot and Holler Christmas offers a multitude of interactive activities that will entertain and engage the whole family.
