

The Liturgical Index to the Hymnal 1982: A Guide to the Hymns of the Episcopal Church

The Liturgical Index to the Hymnal 1982 is a comprehensive guide to the hymns contained in the official hymnal of the Episcopal Church. It provides detailed information on each hymn, including its title, author, composer, liturgical use, and scriptural references. The index is an invaluable resource for clergy, musicians, and anyone else who uses the Hymnal 1982.

The Liturgical Index was first published in 1985, three years after the Hymnal 1982 was adopted by the Episcopal Church. The index was compiled by a team of scholars and musicians led by the Rev. Dr. Richard Leach. The first edition of the index included over 7,000 hymns, and it has been updated and expanded several times since then. The current edition of the index includes over 8,000 hymns.

The Liturgical Index is divided into three main sections:
