The Courage of Malala Yousafzai

Malala Yousafzai is a Pakistani activist for female education who became the target of the Taliban for speaking out about the importance of education for girls. In 2012, she was shot in the head by a Taliban gunman while riding the school bus. Miraculously, she survived and went on to become a global advocate for the rights of children, especially girls.

The Loyalty of Hachiko

Hachiko was a Japanese dog who became famous for his unwavering loyalty to his master, Professor Hidesaburo Ueno. Every day, Hachiko would accompany his master to the train station and wait for him to return. Even after Professor Ueno died in 1925, Hachiko continued to wait for him at the train station every day for the next nine years.

The Friendship of Anne Frank and Peter van Pels

Anne Frank and Peter van Pels were two Jewish teenagers who fell in love while hiding from the Nazis during World War II. They met in the secret annex where Anne's family and the van Pels family were hiding. Despite the danger and uncertainty of their situation, Anne and Peter found solace and companionship in each other's company.
